

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1548

By Pearson

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend CodeCrew of Memphis for its transformative work in advancing computer science education and expanding opportunity for young people and communities across the State of Tennessee.

WHEREAS, CodeCrew, founded in 2015 in Memphis and still going strong in 2026, has emerged as a leading nonprofit organization dedicated to equipping students and adults with critical computer science and technology skills; and

WHEREAS, CodeCrew has taught more than 15,000 students to code through innovative and accessible programming, including in-school electives, after-school and weekend programs, summer camps, internships, and workforce development initiatives; and

WHEREAS, the organization's mission is rooted in equity and empowerment, with a strong focus on reaching those historically underrepresented in the technology sector, including Black and Latino youth and young women, ensuring broader access to opportunity in a rapidly evolving digital economy; and

WHEREAS, CodeCrew provides hands-on instruction in mobile and web app development, game design, robotics, drone programming, and artificial intelligence, preparing participants not merely to consume technology, but to create and lead in the field of innovation; and

WHEREAS, through its Code School, CodeCrew has extended its impact to adults, offering intensive training programs that equip participants with real-world software development skills and pathways to meaningful employment, thereby strengthening families and communities across Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, CodeCrew's work is building a more resilient workforce, fostering creativity, critical thinking, and economic mobility, and ensuring that Tennessee remains competitive in the 21st-century economy; and

WHEREAS, the organization stands as a beacon of innovation, opportunity, and justice, demonstrating what is possible when communities invest in the brilliance and potential of their young people; and

WHEREAS, it is most fitting that we specially recognize the leadership, staff, educators, mentors, and students of CodeCrew for their unwavering commitment to building a more just, innovative, and inclusive future; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor and commend CodeCrew for its outstanding contributions to education, workforce development, and community empowerment, and celebrate its continuing impact on the lives of thousands of Tennesseans.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
