

HOUSE RESOLUTION 163

By White

A RESOLUTION to commemorate April 11, 2026, as Animation Day in Tennessee.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we should specially recognize those citizens and organizations that contribute to the cultural, educational, and economic vitality of the State of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, animation is a dynamic and evolving art form that blends visual arts, storytelling, performance, music, and technology to inform, educate, and inspire audiences of all ages; and

WHEREAS, animation represents a legitimate and growing career path for Tennessee students, as it is an industry with real economic impact; and

WHEREAS, Tennessee's creative economy generates billions of dollars in annual economic impact and supports hundreds of thousands of jobs, with digital media, motion picture production, and creative services, including animation, playing an increasingly significant role in that growth; and

WHEREAS, while animation is often associated with entertainment, its influence reaches much further; and

WHEREAS, Tennessee's colleges, universities, career and technical education programs, and independent artists are equipping students with animation and digital production skills that align with the demands of a competitive global marketplace; and

WHEREAS, Animation Day will celebrate the artists, innovators, and educators who are advancing this important art form, industry, and professional pathway, while encouraging continued investment in arts and creative workforce development; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that April 11, 2026, be commemorated as Animation Day in Tennessee to celebrate the art and the profession of animation and the people across our State who bring stories to life.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
