AMEND Senate Bill No. 1083

House Bill No. 622*

by adding the following as a preamble before the enacting clause:

WHEREAS, diversity, equity, inclusion (DEI) has been weaponized in this country; and

WHEREAS, since 2023 at least 256 bills have been introduced in states attacking DEI in different governmental settings and at least twenty states have at least one law that bans DEI practices in government; and

WHEREAS, since 2023 at least 157 bills explicitly attacking DEI in education have been introduced in thirty-four states and fifteen states have passed the bans or restrictions into law; and

WHEREAS, since 2023, 226 bills explicitly attacking DEI in private business have been introduced across thirty-six states with sixteen states enacting such laws; and

WHEREAS, the Social Security Administration, in the 2021-2022 period, reported that the median annual earnings of White, non-Hispanic men in the 20-29 age group were 34% higher than Black, non-Hispanic men; and

WHEREAS, the Social Security Administration, in the 2021-2022 period, reported that the median annual earnings of White, non-Hispanic men in the 50-59 age group were 49% higher than Black, non-Hispanic men; now, therefore,

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting SECTION 1 and substituting instead:

SECTION 1. This act is known and may be cited as the "Caucasian Male Prosperity Act."
