

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 326

By Pody

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Brian Glenn Wilson on fifty years of service in the broadcasting industry.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly take great pleasure in recognizing those radio broadcasters who have achieved luminary status within their communities and beyond, becoming true industry legends; and

WHEREAS, one such gentleman is Brian Glenn Wilson, former Fox News anchor and host of The Drive with Brian Wilson on SuperTalk 99.7 WTN in Nashville, who recently celebrated fifty years in the broadcasting industry; and

WHEREAS, born on February 15, 1956, Mr. Wilson was raised in Odessa, Texas; he earned a master's degree in print journalism from American University, where he also served as an adjunct professor in the communication school; and

WHEREAS, Brian Wilson began his broadcasting career in 1975 at the age of nineteen in his hometown of Odessa, Texas, at KOZA radio as a news director; and

WHEREAS, a few short years later, Mr. Wilson started his television career at KAMR TV, the NBC affiliate in Amarillo, Texas, before moving to KFDA TV Amarillo, the CBS affiliate; he later returned to Odessa to KTPX of NBC, and in 1984, he moved to Mobile, Alabama, to WKRG of CBS, where he first served as a city hall reporter and then as an evening news anchor; and

WHEREAS, in 1986, Brian Wilson moved to Washington, D.C., to work as a reporter and quickly became an anchor for the evening news on WTTG; in 1998, he moved to Fox News as a senior correspondent and anchor, and in 2010, he moved back to WMAL radio to host the morning show; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wilson found his final home in 2018 as the radio host of the morning drive with SuperTalk 99.7 WTN; he moved to the afternoons in 2021 to host The Drive with Brian Wilson; and

WHEREAS, during his tenure at Fox News, Brian Wilson covered the White House, Capitol Hill, and the Supreme Court; he also covered the events of 9/11 from the Pentagon; and

WHEREAS, his professional accomplishments aside, Brian Wilson is most grateful for the love and support of his wife, Dawn; his daughter, Jessica Wilson; his son, Christopher Klein; and his sister, Gwen Hicks; and

WHEREAS, for five decades, Mr. Wilson has demonstrated a remarkable commitment to informing and entertaining his audiences, and we wish to recognize and commend him on this special occasion; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor and commend Brian Glenn Wilson, the former voice of The Drive with Brian Wilson on SuperTalk 99.7 WTN in Nashville, on fifty years of service in the broadcasting industry and wish him many more years of success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
