

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1158

By Walley

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of Patrick Henry Mann, Jr., of Brownsville.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly were greatly saddened to learn of the passing of Patrick Henry Mann, Jr.; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Mann was a highly respected member of his community and a consummate professional who worked assiduously to improve the quality of life for his fellow citizens in numerous capacities; and

WHEREAS, born on February 25, 1936, Mr. Mann was a lifelong resident of Haywood County and a 1954 graduate of Haywood High School, where he was captain of the football team; and

WHEREAS, Patrick Mann earned a bachelor's degree from Vanderbilt University and graduated from Vanderbilt Law School in 1960, before returning to Brownsville to practice law, embarking upon a career that spanned from 1961 to 2023; and

WHEREAS, a successful businessman, Patrick Mann had a passion for acquiring farmland; he took an interest in the crops it yielded and the people who cultivated it, viewing the land not merely as an investment but as a resource worthy of protection; and

WHEREAS, Patrick Mann was a devoted advisor and counselor to young men, including farmers, lawyers, and fellow sportsmen, offering his time and wisdom and often reflecting on time spent with his own mentor, Phil Williams, whom he deeply admired; and

WHEREAS, a true civic leader, Mr. Mann left an indelible mark on Brownsville, bringing the Brownsville Amphitheater to life, refurbishing the memorial flame on the courthouse lawn, commissioning murals around Courthouse Square, and installing the clock at Tamm Park; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Mann held a deep appreciation for Haywood County's history and was a generous benefactor of its preservation; among his most cherished contributions was the relocation and restoration of the one-room schoolhouse attended by the legendary Tina Turner, an endeavor that transformed the structure into a curated tribute to her memory at Brownsville's Welcome Center; and

WHEREAS, beyond his civic endeavors, Patrick Mann was a staunch advocate for the arts, supporting the Jackson Symphony and serving as a board member of Lambuth College and the Haywood County School Board; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Mann was an avid outdoorsman, and his love for the outdoors included crafting birdhouses, feeding hummingbirds, hunting with his bird dogs, and having fishing adventures across several continents. He embraced travel as a way of life, exploring national parks, cities, and museums with his family; whether biking through Europe or hiking trails closer to home, he and his wife shared an enduring love of discovery; and

WHEREAS, Patrick Mann was deeply devoted to his family and always endeavored to remain true to family values of the highest order; and

WHEREAS, he will be sadly missed but fondly remembered by his beloved wife of sixty-seven years, Ann Elizabeth Rule Mann; his children, Tanner (Lisa) Mann, John (Laura) Mann, Elizabeth Mann, and David (Beth) Mann; his grandchildren, John-Michael (Kaitlynn) Mann, Lauren (Ford) Ellington, Aiden (Jordyn) Riseling, Brenna Riseling, Logan Mann, Leah Mann, Elizabeth Mann, and Kate Mann; four great-grandchildren; his brother, Bradford Dayton (Linda) Mann, Sr.; and a host of cousins and friends; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Mann was preceded in death by his parents, Patrick Henry Mann, Sr., and Dorothy Mohon Mann; and

WHEREAS, Patrick Mann was wholly dedicated to his faith and an active member of First United Methodist Church, which he served in numerous capacities; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Mann leaves behind an indelible legacy of integrity and probity in public life, compassion and loyalty in private life, and diligence and dedication in all his chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we should pause to remember the bountiful life of this exceptional public servant and human being; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor the memory of Patrick Henry Mann, Jr., reflecting fondly upon his impeccable character and his stalwart commitment to living the examined life with courage and conviction.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we express our sympathy and offer our condolences to the family of Mr. Mann.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
