AMEND Senate Bill No. 6001*

House Bill No. 6004

by adding the following at the end of the amendatory language in Section 2:

49-6-3513. Private school reporting.

(a) By June 30, 2026, and each June 30 thereafter, each private school that enrolls a recipient shall report to the office of research and education accountability in the office of the comptroller of the treasury the following information about each recipient enrolled in the private school for the previous school year:

- (1) The county in which the private school is located;
- (2) The county in which the recipient resides;
- (3) The recipient's household income level for the previous year; and
- (4) The sex and race of the recipient.

(b) The office of research and education accountability shall submit an annual report to the education committee of the senate and the committee of the house of representatives having jurisdiction over education detailing the results of the reports submitted pursuant to subsection (a).
