

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1660

By Behn

A RESOLUTION to honor the workers killed at the explosion at the Accurate Energetic Systems facility on October 10, 2025.

WHEREAS, on October 10, 2025, a catastrophic explosion at the Accurate Energetic Systems (AES) facility in McEwen killed sixteen workers and injured seven others, making it one of the deadliest industrial disasters in the United States in recent years; and

WHEREAS, the sixteen lives lost were Jason Adams, Erick Anderson, Billy Baker, Adam Boatman, Christopher Clark, Mindy Clifton, James Cook, Reyna Gillahan, LeTeisha Mays, Jeremy Moore, Melinda Rainey, Melissa Stanford, Trenton Stewart, Rachel Woodall, Steven Wright, and Donald Yowell, neighbors and community members from Humphreys and Hickman counties who went to work and did not come home; and

WHEREAS, behind every fatality number is a worker: someone who has family, friends, community, and a life, and these sixteen are remembered not as statistics but as beloved members of their families and their communities; and

WHEREAS, the Tennessee Occupational Safety and Health Administration found fifty-nine willful violations and thirty-two serious violations at the AES facility and assessed the highest workplace safety penalties in State history at $3,133,900, confirming that these deaths were preventable; and

WHEREAS, observed each year on April 28th, Workers Memorial Day was established to recognize workers who died or suffered from exposures to hazards at work and to encourage us to think of ways in which we all can help achieve the goal of safer and healthier workplaces; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE

CONCURRING, that we honor the memory of the sixteen workers lost at Accurate Energetic Systems and extend our deepest condolences to their families and the communities of Humphreys and Hickman counties.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
