

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 82

By Johnson

A RESOLUTION to honor Dr. Dearl Douglas Lampley upon the occasion of his retirement from Columbia State Community College.

WHEREAS, Dr. Dearl Douglas Lampley has taken a much-deserved retirement from Columbia State Community College after dedicating more than a quarter of a century to the school; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Lampley spent his outstanding professional career in higher education serving in various roles, including instructor, program director, faculty Senate president, and dean; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Lampley joined the Columbia State faculty in 1998 and served as dean for its science, technology, and math division from 2010 until the spring of 2018; and

WHEREAS, as dean, Dr. Lampley excelled at developing courses and academic programs, articulating with secondary school and university partners, and building relationships with industry partners; and

WHEREAS, his foresight and guidance led to such initiatives as the advanced integrated industrial technology AAS degree, the Hampshire Unit School project-based learning program, STEM events geared specifically toward girls and young women, and fully embedded college programs in area high schools, including Fairview and Centennial; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Lampley was also instrumental in developing workforce training and educational programs for industry partners, including several major corporations; and

WHEREAS, a native of Fairview in Williamson County, Dr. Lampley earned his bachelor's degree in animal science and vocational education from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville (UTK) and then conducted research at Ames Plantation Education and Research

Center as part of the requirements for obtaining his master's degree in animal science from UTK; and

WHEREAS, he continued his education at East Tennessee State University, where he earned a doctorate in educational leadership and policy analysis; his doctoral dissertation was a study of higher education appropriations in relation to student success factors; and

WHEREAS, the American Association of University Administrators recognized the quality of this work by honoring Dr. Lampley with the 2018 Leo and Margaret Goodman-Malamuth Dissertation Award; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Lampley recently retired as vice president of the Williamson campus and external services for Columbia State; and

WHEREAS, at the end of his distinguished career as an educator and administrator with Columbia State, we wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Lampley for his outstanding contributions and dedication to that institution in particular and science and technology education in general; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor Dr. Dearl Douglas Lampley upon his exemplary career with Columbia State Community College, praise his work in developing academic programs and workforce training complementary to the science and technology of today's world, and extend to him our best wishes for success and happiness during his retirement.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
