

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1239

By Bailey

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Natalie Saxon-Adams for her meritorious service to the State of Tennessee.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should pause to specially recognize those estimable public servants who have dedicated themselves to improving the quality of life for their fellow citizens; and

WHEREAS, Natalie Saxon-Adams is one such estimable person, who evinces the greatest integrity and probity in all her chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, a native of Hendersonville, Mrs. Saxon-Adams launched her distinguished career with the Cookeville-Putnam County Chamber of Commerce on February 7, 2022; and

WHEREAS, Natalie Saxon-Adams was promoted to membership manager in October 2022 and successfully led the membership department through two managerial maternity leaves, earning the respect and admiration of her colleagues and community alike for the superior quality of her work; and

WHEREAS, during her tenure, Mrs. Saxon-Adams has spearheaded 282 ribbon-cutting ceremonies and nineteen school adoption ceremonies, assisted with 118 events, and welcomed 315 new members into the Chamber; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Saxon-Adams was a server lead and bartender at Seven Senses Food and Cheer for five years before joining the Chamber and was there a total of seven years; and

WHEREAS, a 2026 graduate of Leadership Putnam, Natalie Saxon-Adams earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Marketing from Tennessee Technological University in 2020; and

WHEREAS, a woman of many talents and passions, Mrs. Saxon-Adams has a deep love for music, animals, and Cookeville's historic Westside; and

WHEREAS, her many professional accomplishments aside, Natalie Saxon-Adams is most grateful for the love and support she shares with her husband, Jeff, with whom she welcomed her first son, Avery, in January 2025; and

WHEREAS, the success of the State of Tennessee, the strength of our communities, and the overall vitality of our society depend, in great measure, on the dedication of people such as Mrs. Saxon-Adams, who use their considerable talents and resources to serve others; and

WHEREAS, Natalie Saxon-Adams is wholly committed to the noble precepts of public service that have earned Tennessee recognition as the Volunteer State, and she should be specially recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor and commend Natalie Saxon-Adams for her indelible contributions to Putnam County and the State of Tennessee and extend to her our best wishes for much continued success and happiness.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
