

SENATE RESOLUTION 363

By Walley

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Calleigh Phillips upon being selected to attend the Tennessee 4-H Congress.

WHEREAS, the members of this legislative body are pleased to recognize those outstanding young Tennesseans who, through their remarkable achievements and leadership, bring great honor to their schools and communities; and

WHEREAS, one such impressive young woman is Calleigh Phillips, who was selected to attend the Tennessee 4-H Congress, held in Nashville from March 6 to March 11, 2026; and

WHEREAS, the Tennessee 4-H Congress is one of the State's premier 4-H events, bringing together high school students to learn about government, citizenship, and leadership and providing participants with the opportunity to engage in legislative simulations, including debating bills, holding elections, and gaining firsthand experience in the legislative process at the State Capitol; and

WHEREAS, during her participation in this prestigious program, Ms. Phillips was a Public Speaking finalist for the Western Region and a Level II Leadership Portfolio finalist, demonstrating exceptional skill in communication, leadership, and civic engagement; and

WHEREAS, in addition, she was selected to serve as a Know Your Government facilitator and as chair of the Agriculture Committee, roles through which she helped guide her fellow delegates in legislative simulations, including the drafting, debating, and passage of mock legislation; and

WHEREAS, her selection as a top-six finalist statewide in both public speaking and leadership portfolio competitions is a testament to her diligence, intellect, and commitment to excellence; and

WHEREAS, a junior at Adamsville High School, Calleigh Phillips is an active and engaged student who has distinguished herself through her involvement in agricultural education programs, including her leadership in FFA; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Phillips serves as president of her school's FFA chapter and plays an integral role in managing the school greenhouse, where she assists in the cultivation and sale of plants, helps oversee daily operations, and provides instruction and mentorship to fellow students; and

WHEREAS, through these experiences, Calleigh Phillips has demonstrated not only academic ability but also a strong work ethic, leadership capacity, and a commitment to serving others, qualities that will undoubtedly contribute to her future success; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Phillips has expressed an interest in pursuing a career in agricultural engineering, with the goal of supporting farmers and strengthening agricultural communities; and

WHEREAS, Calleigh Phillips's success has been aided by the encouragement and support of dedicated teachers, advisors, and mentors who have guided her development; and

WHEREAS, her noteworthy achievement is a tremendous source of pride for her family, her school, and her community; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Phillips's dedication to excellence is clearly deserving of our respect, admiration, and commendation; now therefore

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor and commend Calleigh Phillips for her exemplary achievement in being selected to attend the Tennessee 4-H Congress and extend to her our best wishes for continued success in all her future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
