

HOUSE BILL 446

By Hulsey

AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 4; Title 5; Title 6 and Title 7, relative to international organizations.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 4, Chapter 1, Part 1, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

(a) This section is known and may be cited as the "Restrictions on International Organizations' Jurisdiction in the State of Tennessee Act."

(b) The World Health Organization, the United Nations, and the World Economic Forum, directly or indirectly, have no jurisdiction in this state. This state and its political subdivisions, including, but not limited to, counties, cities, towns, precincts, water districts, school districts, school administrative units, and quasi-public entities, must not be compelled to engage in the enforcement of, or to collaborate with the enforcement of, a requirement or mandate issued by the World Health Organization, the United Nations, or the World Economic Forum, whether directly or indirectly, including, without limitation, a government, public, or private organization acting on behalf of the World Health Organization, World Economic Forum, or United Nations such as a national focal point;
the International Health Regulations (IHR) agreement of 2005; the United States department of health and human services, food and drug administration, center for disease control, or national institute of health; or other United Nations, federal, or state
One Health agencies.

(c) A requirement or mandate issued by the World Health Organization, the United Nations, or the World Economic Forum, whether directly or indirectly, including, without limitation, a government, public, or private organization acting on behalf of the World Health Organization, World Economic Forum, or United Nations such as a national focal point; the IHR agreement of 2005; the United States department of health and human services, food and drug administration, center for disease control, or national institute of health; or other United Nations, federal, or state One Health agencies must not be used in this state as a basis for action, nor to direct, order, or otherwise impose, contrary to the Tennessee constitution and laws of this state, a requirement or mandate, including those for masks, vaccines, or medical testing, or to gather public or private information about the state's citizens or residents, and such a requirement or mandate has no force or effect in this state.

(d) This state and all political subdivisions of this state, including, but not limited to, counties, cities, towns, precincts, water districts, school districts, school administrative units, and quasi-public entities, shall not accept any funding in support for any programs associated with the World Health Organization, the United Nations, or the World Economic Forum whether directly or indirectly, including, without limitation, a government, public, or private organization acting on behalf of the World Health Organization, World Economic Forum, or United Nations such as a national focal point; the IHR agreement of 2005; the United States department of health and human services, food and drug administration, center for disease control, or national institute of health; or other United Nations, federal, or state One Health agencies.

(e) A rule, regulation, law, mandate, fee, tax policy, treaty, executive agreement, or international agreement that violates the congressional legislative powers set forth in Article 1, Section 8 of the United States constitution pertaining to the implementation of mandates from the World Health Organization, World Economic Forum, or United Nations must not be enforced or implemented by this state or an agency, department, board, commission, political subdivision, governmental entity of this state, city, county, municipality, or another political entity.

(f) A person or entity that violates this section is subject to a civil penalty of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for a first offense, and twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for each subsequent offense. A person or entity receiving funding in violation of this section must return such funding to the funding organization.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
