WHEREAS, Mr. Rice was one of a handful of citizens who revived the Frayser Exchange Club in the early 2000s in an effort to keep the sprawling twenty-square-mile neighborhood civically engaged; and

WHEREAS, under his leadership, the Frayser Exchange Club became an important representative of the community, garnering regular attendance among community members and fostering civic participation and cooperation among people of different political affiliations, a remarkable achievement in these divisive times; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Rice inspired the resilient residents of Frayser to engage in building a club where people could come together to find solutions to community problems through civic discourse; and

WHEREAS, the dedicated efforts of Mr. Rice and the other members of the Frayser Exchange Club were instrumental in the construction of a new Frayser high school, a new Frayser public library, and the new Ed Rice Community Center, named in honor of Shelly Rice's father, where the Frayser Exchange Club now meets; and

WHEREAS, feeling the Frayser Exchange Club needed new blood and new perspectives, Mr. Rice humbly relinquished his leadership post in January 2025 to Pastor Mike Ellis; and

WHEREAS, throughout his exemplary tenure with the Frayser Exchange Club, Shelly Rice has proven himself to be wholly committed to the noble precepts of public service that have earned Tennessee recognition as the Volunteer State, and he is most deserving of our approbation on this special occasion; now, therefore,
