WHEREAS, one such historic establishment is the T.B. Sutton General Store of Granville, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary this year; and

WHEREAS, listed in the National Register of Historic Places, the T.B. Sutton General Store has remained a cornerstone of life in Granville since the 1800s, retaining its original charm with many interior features from the early twentieth century; and

WHEREAS, the patrons of T.B. Sutton General Store frequent the establishment for its unique handmade items, nostalgic toys, Stetson hats, cookbooks, ice cream counter, and old-fashioned candies, as well as the Granville Artisans' Gallery, which features crafted work from ten local artisans; and

WHEREAS, each Saturday night, the T.B. Sutton General Store hosts Tennessee's best bluegrass at the Sutton Ole Time Music Hour, giving the guests in attendance a truly memorable experience; and

WHEREAS, the T.B. Sutton General Store has been recognized by Country Living and Southern Living magazines for its appeal as a summer destination and as one of the South's most charming country stores; and

WHEREAS, the T.B. Sutton General Store was purchased by Harold and Beverly Sutton and gifted to the Museum in 2007 with two conditions: the store would continue to operate as a country store and it would feature live bluegrass music; and

WHEREAS, T.B. Sutton General Store has played an integral role in the lives of the good people of the Granville community for 100 years, and it is most appropriate that this historic business be recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we hereby honor and commend the owners and staff, both past and present, of T.B.
