

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 634

By Martin G

A RESOLUTION to recognize Rheubin McGhee Taylor on the occasion of his retirement.

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that the members of this General Assembly should pause to specially recognize those citizens who have dedicated themselves to improving the quality of life for their fellow citizens; and

WHEREAS, one such estimable Tennessean is Rheubin McGhee Taylor, who is retiring after more than thirty years of distinguished service as the Hamilton County Attorney; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Taylor is the son of Captain Lloyd R.V. Taylor, Grasshopper Pilot for the Tuskegee Air Men, and his wife, Gloria McGhee, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew McGhee; and

WHEREAS, Rheubin Taylor is a graduate of Riverside High School in Chattanooga and North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University; he earned his Juris Doctor degree from the prestigious Howard University School of Law in 1973; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Taylor began his remarkable legal career in Hamilton County over fifty years ago with the firm of Crutchfield, Moore, and Jenkins in Chattanooga; he subsequently became a partner in the firm, further establishing his reputation as a skilled and dedicated attorney; and

WHEREAS, in 1993, he was appointed Hamilton County Attorney, a role in which he has served with integrity, wisdom, and professionalism for more than thirty years, providing essential legal counsel and steadfast service to the county government and its residents; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his legal acumen, Rheubin Taylor has long been engaged in public service, having been elected as a delegate from the 28th Legislative District to the 1977 Tennessee Limited Constitutional Convention, where he served as chairman of the Interest Rate Committee and was a valued member of both the Judicial and Homestead committees; and

WHEREAS, from 1978 to 1993, Mr. Taylor served on the Hamilton County Board of Commissioners representing the fourth district; during his tenure, he was selected by his colleagues to serve as chairman pro tempore from 1981 to 1982 and again from 1986 to 1987 and as chairman from 1989 to 1990 and from 1992 to 1993; and

WHEREAS, Rheubin Taylor became the pastor of Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church in LaFayette (Naomi), Georgia, in 1995, and he faithfully continues to serve as the church's senior pastor to this day; and

WHEREAS, wholly committed to his community, Mr. Taylor has contributed to numerous civic and charitable endeavors, including the Big Brothers of Chattanooga and Goodwill Industries, which he served as a board member; and

WHEREAS, throughout his many professional accomplishments, Rheubin Taylor is grateful for the love and support he shares with his wife, Joyce Ryan Taylor; together, they have a combined family consisting of five children and are the proud grandparents of twelve grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Taylor served Hamilton County as diligently on his last day as he did his first, and his lasting legacy will continue to benefit generations to come; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor and commend Rheubin McGhee Taylor for his outstanding service to Hamilton County, congratulate him on the occasion of his retirement as Hamilton County Attorney, and extend to him our best wishes for every continued success and happiness in the years to come.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
