

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 761

By Hemmer

A RESOLUTION to recognize John Bradley, Senior Vice President, Economic Development of the Tennessee Valley Authority on the occasion of his retirement.

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that we should honor those citizens who have performed with uncommon devotion and enthusiasm throughout their years of industry; and

WHEREAS, John Bradley is one such estimable person, who has served with distinction since 2002 as Senior Vice President, Economic Development of the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA), and will soon be taking his much-deserved retirement from the nation's largest public utility; and

WHEREAS, a proud resident of the Volunteer State, John Bradley grew up in Memphis and attended the University of Tennessee, Knoxville; and

WHEREAS, a veteran economic development professional with over thirty-five years' experience, John Bradley served as the Senior Vice President of Economic Development at the Memphis Regional Chamber of Commerce prior to his employment by TVA; and

WHEREAS, during his tenure at TVA, Mr. Bradley implemented a wide range of impactful initiatives, including a targeted recruitment program and enhanced support for community development and existing industries; and

WHEREAS, he helped create the TVA Certified Megasite Program, which earned TVA the Gold Excellence Award in Economic Development from the International Economic Development Council; and

WHEREAS, under his leadership, TVA Economic Development has contributed to the creation of more than 489,000 new jobs, the retention of 802,000 jobs, and a total capital investment of over $150 billion across the Tennessee Valley; his impactful work furthered TVA's mission of service to help improve the quality of life for the ten million residents of the Valley region; and

WHEREAS, no stranger to awards and accolades, John Bradley has been recognized for leading one of the top economic development teams in the country, as TVA has been honored as a Top Utility in Economic Development by Site Selection magazine for twenty consecutive years and has been named one of Nashville Business Journal's Best Places to Work; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Bradley has played a key role in shaping the careers of countless economic development professionals through his support, mentorship, and world-class sense of humor; and

WHEREAS, this esteemed gentleman has been mistaken for Little Jimmy Dickens's grandson and is known for being the life of the party, never missing an opportunity to crack a joke; and

WHEREAS, a semi-professional wine connoisseur, Mr. Bradley also enjoys the beach and fishing and plans to spend his retirement at his cabin, fishing, traveling, and spending more time with his family; and

WHEREAS, John Bradley exemplifies the spirit and allegiance to family and community that are characteristic of a true Tennessean; and

WHEREAS, throughout his estimable career, John Bradley has demonstrated the utmost professionalism, ability, and integrity; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we extend to John Bradley our heartfelt wishes for a happy and fulfilling retirement and every continued success in his future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
