

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1082

By Lamberth

A RESOLUTION to commend Representative Jeremy Faison for his honorable and distinguished service to the people of Tennessee as a member of the House of Representatives.

WHEREAS, it is most appropriate that the members of this General Assembly should honor those fellow legislators who have performed their duties with the utmost integrity and whose efforts during their time in office have been dedicated to providing thoughtful and exemplary service to their districts and to this great State; and

WHEREAS, Representative Jeremy Faison is one such distinguished public servant, who has served both his constituency and this legislative body with honor and ability; and

WHEREAS, during his tenure on Capitol Hill, Representative Faison has faithfully served the citizens of the 11th House District, currently encompassing Cocke and portions of Hamblen and Jefferson counties, and previously part of Greene and Jefferson counties, since his election in 2010, representing the district from the 107th through the 114th General Assemblies; and

WHEREAS, Representative Jeremy Faison is a devoted Christian who is married to Miriam Faison and is the proud father of five children, Rebekah, Reagan, Gage, Asher, and Tucker, and the proud grandfather of one grandchild, Zion; and

WHEREAS, throughout his years of public service, Representative Faison has remained deeply committed to his family, ensuring that the demands of public life never overshadow the importance of his faith and loved ones; those who have worked in and around the State Capitol have often been reminded of that devotion by the presence of his children, who could frequently be seen about the Capitol grounds, bringing warmth and joy to the building; and

WHEREAS, as the owner of Rocky Top Pest Control, Representative Faison has brought real-world experience and a strong work ethic to his legislative duties; he previously served as president of the Cocke County Republicans and as a worship leader at Crossroads Community Church; and

WHEREAS, an active and dynamic participant in the legislative process during his tenure in the General Assembly, Representative Jeremy Faison has rendered sterling leadership as chairman of the House Republican Caucus since 2019, and as chair of the House Government Operations Committee, chair of the Joint Judiciary and Government Committee, and vice chair of the House Criminal Justice Committee; and

WHEREAS, Representative Faison has estimably served as a member of the House Agriculture Committee, the House Calendar and Rules Committee, the House Commerce Committee, the House Finance, Ways and Means Committee, the House Government Operations Committee, the House Health Committee, the House Insurance Committee, the House Judiciary Committee, and the House Local Government Committee; and

WHEREAS, he has also served with distinction as a member of numerous subcommittees, including the House Appropriations and Oversight Subcommittee, the House Banking and Consumer Affairs Subcommittee, the House Criminal Justice Subcommittee, the House Finance, Ways and Means Appropriations Subcommittee, the House Finance, Ways and Means Subcommittee, the House Health Subcommittee, and the House Property and Casualty Subcommittee; and

WHEREAS, Representative Faison has further contributed his leadership and expertise through service on joint committees of the General Assembly, including the Joint Fiscal Review Committee, the Joint Government Operations Committee and the Joint Government Operations Commerce, Labor, Transportation and Agriculture Subcommittee, the Joint Government Operations Education, Health and General Welfare Subcommittee, the Joint Government Operations Judiciary and Government Subcommittee, the Joint Ways and Means Committee, and the Joint Education, Health and General Welfare Committee; and

WHEREAS, he also served as a member of the House Calendar and Rules Committee and the House Finance, Ways and Means Committee of the First Extraordinary Session of the

114th General Assembly; the House Commerce Committee, the House Health Committee, the House Finance, Ways and Means Subcommittee, and the House Banking and Consumer Affairs Subcommittee of the First Extraordinary Session of the 113th General Assembly; the House Calendar and Rules Committee, the House Finance, Ways and Means Committee, and the House COVID-19 Committee of the Third Extraordinary Session of the 112th General Assembly; the House Calendar and Rules Committee and the House Finance, Ways and Means Committee of the Second Extraordinary Session of the 112th General Assembly; and the House Calendar and Rules Committee and the House Electronic Delivery of Healthcare Committee of the Second Extraordinary Session of the 111th General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, throughout his service in the General Assembly, Representative Faison has been a champion for small businesses and rural Tennessee interests, a fierce defender of the Second Amendment, and a steadfast advocate for adoption and for unborn children; and

WHEREAS, an avid outdoorsman, Representative Jeremy Faison is a member of the Tennessee Sportsmen's Caucus and was an inaugural member and performer in the annual Capitol Jam, a live music event held at the Tennessee Performing Arts Center that showcases the talents of legislative members, staff, and others; and

WHEREAS, through his sponsorship and support of enacted legislation, including measures to protect vulnerable populations, such as enhancements for child exposure to fentanyl, as well as legislation concerning prohibitions, veteran support, public health and safety, education remediation, and making adoption more accessible, Representative Jeremy Faison has consistently advocated for limited government, individual liberties, family values, and the betterment of Tennessee communities; and

WHEREAS, after more than fifteen years of steadfast legislative service, Representative Faison has formed many lifelong friendships throughout his district that he will cherish for the rest of his life; throughout his tenure, he has exemplified integrity, leadership, and dedication in advancing the interests of his constituents and the entire State of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, Representative Jeremy Faison is wholly committed to the noble precepts of public service that have earned Tennessee recognition as the Volunteer State, and he should be specially recognized for his exemplary tenure in the General Assembly; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we hereby honor Representative Jeremy Faison for his meritorious service to Tennessee as a member of the House of Representatives, commend him for his countless contributions and many good works in service of the citizens of the 11th House District, and extend to him our best wishes for much continued success and happiness.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
