

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1190

By Reneau

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Ed Caram on his receipt of the Chattanooga Police Department Chaplain of the Year award.

WHEREAS, our nation was conceived by individuals who were willing to sacrifice their personal concerns to ensure the public safety and welfare, and the Volunteer State is especially proud to be the home of so many valiant individuals who have performed above and beyond the call of duty in service of public safety; and

WHEREAS, Ed Caram is one such individual, who was recently honored with the Chattanooga Police Department (CPD) Chaplain of the Year award, in recognition of his outstanding service in the CPD Chaplain Corps to officers, staff, and community members affected by crime and trauma; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Caram has shown unwavering commitment to the CPD, known for his intentional ride-alongs, quick, compassionate crisis response, and continuous efforts to improve officer well-being; and

WHEREAS, although often unaware of his significant impact, he always provides quiet, consistent, non-judgmental support; his ability to foster deep relationships enables reserved officers to feel comfortable reaching out in their hardest moments; and

WHEREAS, Ed Caram has worked with purpose and conviction to better the lives of the good people of the Chattanooga Police Department and the Chattanooga community at large; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor and commend Ed Caram upon his receipt of the Chaplain of the Year award from the Chattanooga Police Department.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
