

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 881

By Yager

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of Charles Goodson of Lancing.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly were greatly saddened to learn of the passing of Charles Goodson of Lancing; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Goodson was an exemplary public servant and consummate professional who worked assiduously to improve the quality of life for his fellow citizens in numerous capacities; and

WHEREAS, Charles Goodson was born on September 14, 1938, in Fleming, Kentucky, to Charles E. and Bethel Honeycutt Goodson; he grew up on Rome Road in Morgan County and graduated from Sunbright High School; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Goodson began his career as a textile graphist at Kellwood Corporation in Sunbright and also worked as a farmer; he owned Acme Silver Company and Goodson's Grocery in Lancing, and in his later years, he raised cattle and gardened for everyone in his family; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Goodson was deeply devoted to his family, and he always endeavored to remain true to family values of the highest order; and

WHEREAS, in 1960, Charles Goodson married Myrtle Poe; together, they raised four children who survive them: Peggy (John) Rochelle, Charlie (Sheila) Goodson, Joe Goodson, and David (Jeri) Goodson; and

WHEREAS, they were also blessed with three grandchildren, Allison (Jeff) Goulder, Alex Goodson, and K.W. (Brittany) Goodson, and one great-grandchild, Marcus Goodson; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Goodson's favorite activities were raising cattle, farming hay, gardening, and watching New York Yankees baseball; after his wife's passing, he took up painting and created amazing paint-by-number scenes of trains, farms, and The Last Supper and also discovered YouTube, which enabled him to experience the world from his home; and

WHEREAS, Charles Goodson was actively involved in the Morgan County Cattlemen's Association and was a man of deep faith who shared the Gospel of Jesus Christ with everyone he met; his faith journey came later in life, as he was baptized in his sixties and later became a deacon at Potter's Chapel Missionary Baptist Church; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Goodson leaves behind an indelible legacy of integrity and probity in public life, compassion and loyalty in private life, and diligence and dedication in all his chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should remember the bountiful life of this exceptional public servant and human being; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor the memory of Charles Goodson, reflecting fondly upon his impeccable character and his stalwart commitment to living the examined life with courage and conviction.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we extend our sympathy and offer our condolences to the family of Mr. Goodson.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
