

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 998

By Massey

A RESOLUTION to honor Jan McNally of Oak Ridge for her many contributions to the State of Tennessee.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly are honored to recognize an individual who has dedicated herself to serving the needs of this State and its citizens, committing her time and energies to improving the quality of life for Tennesseans; and

WHEREAS, one such individual is Jan McNally, a sterling and accomplished professional, a respected community leader, and the wife of our colleague Lieutenant Governor Randy McNally; and

WHEREAS, a highly respected healthcare professional, Jan McNally was director of the Journey to Excellence, Leadership Development at Covenant Health before taking her much-deserved retirement; she previously served as the president and chief administrative officer for Methodist Medical Center of Oak Ridge; and

WHEREAS, a fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives, Mrs. McNally serves on the board of directors for Ridgeview Behavioral Services and is a former member of the University of Tennessee College of Nursing Advisory Board; and

WHEREAS, Jan McNally has made significant contributions to arts and culture in Tennessee through her dedicated service and visionary leadership as a member of the Tennessee Arts Commission; and

WHEREAS, first appointed by Governor Bill Haslam in 2017 and reappointed by Governor Bill Lee for a five-year term in 2024, Mrs. McNally played a pivotal role in supporting arts and culture in the State during her tenure as two-time chair of the Tennessee Arts Commission from 2020 to 2022; and

WHEREAS, she spearheaded an innovative $1 million initiative, partnering with nursing homes across Tennessee, to bring the transformative power of the arts to seniors statewide. Under her guidance, the agency achieved record funding levels, amplifying the economic impact of Tennessee's arts and culture sector in all ninety-five counties and ensuring broad support for creative communities throughout the State; and

WHEREAS, she is a graduate of the J&J Wharton Fellows Program for Nurse Executives at the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology and Psychology from Mississippi University for Women, a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, and a Master of Health Service Administration degree from the University of St. Francis; and

WHEREAS, no stranger to awards and accolades, Jan McNally has received the University of Tennessee College of Nursing Outstanding Alumni Award, the University of Tennessee College of Nursing Distinguished Alumni Award, the Ned R. McWherter Excellence Award from the Tennessee Center for Performance Excellence, the Muddy Boot Award (2007) from ETEC, and the Knoxville Healthcare Heroes Award; and

WHEREAS, a beloved family matriarch, Jan McNally enjoys the love and support of her devoted husband, Randy, and their two daughters and sons-in-law, Melissa and Rob Stubbs and Maggie and Doug Kimball; their grandchildren, Haley Stubbs, Trent Stubbs, and Morgan McNally; and their two great-grandchildren, Malachi Johnson and Jeremiah McNally; and

WHEREAS, Jan McNally is an inspiration to all who know her, and her dedication to her family and to improving the lives of Tennesseans is worthy of recognition by this General Assembly; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we hereby recognize Jan McNally for her many contributions, applaud her tireless service to the State of Tennessee and its citizens, and extend our best wishes for her every future success and happiness.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
