

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1079

By Oliver

A RESOLUTION to commemorate National Pencil Day in Tennessee.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should recognize those inventions and innovations that have had a lasting impact on human expression, education, and creativity; and

WHEREAS, National Pencil Day, observed annually on March 30, provides an opportunity to celebrate the pencil, a simple yet indispensable writing instrument that has enabled generations of individuals to record ideas, express creativity, and communicate knowledge; and

WHEREAS, the pencil traces its origins to the sixteenth century, following the discovery of graphite in England, and over time evolved from rudimentary writing tools into the widely used wooden graphite pencil known today; and

WHEREAS, throughout history, advancements in pencil design, including the development of graphite mixtures and wood casings, have contributed to the widespread availability and utility of pencils across the world; and

WHEREAS, on March 30, 1858, Hymen Lipman received a patent for attaching an eraser to the end of a pencil, creating a more efficient and practical writing instrument that allowed users to easily correct mistakes; and

WHEREAS, pencils have remained an essential tool in education, art, and everyday life, valued for their versatility, accessibility, and ability to foster learning and creativity; and

WHEREAS, even in an increasingly digital age, the pencil continues to serve as a symbol of imagination, innovation, and the enduring importance of the written word; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we join with the good people of this State in commemorating March 30, 2026, as National Pencil Day and to raise public awareness about the significance of this simple yet remarkable instrument.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
