

SENATE RESOLUTION 37

By Akbari

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Sheila Whalum of Memphis.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we should salute those citizens who, through their extraordinary efforts and artistic contributions, have distinguished themselves as community leaders of whom we can all be proud; and

WHEREAS, one such noteworthy person is Sheila Whalum of Memphis, who has served the Whalum Center for Music at Visible Music College with distinction for nine years as executive director; and

WHEREAS, Sheila Whalum hails from the highly respected Whalum family of Memphis, the members of which, over four generations, have distinguished themselves time and again in the fields of music, worship, and public service; and

WHEREAS, prior to her current position at the Whalum Center for Music, Mrs. Whalum served the City of Memphis's finance department as deputy director, in which position she earned the respect and admiration of her colleagues and community alike for the superior quality of her work; and

WHEREAS, a leader in her community, Sheila Whalum is the author of Why Love Doesn't Last, and she has served as a MILE mentor for the Fogelman College of Business and Economics at the University of Memphis; and

WHEREAS, her professional accomplishments aside, Mrs. Whalum enjoys the love and support of her husband, the pastor of the New Olivet Worship Center at Woodland Hills, Dr. Kenneth T. Whalum, Jr.; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Whalum epitomizes the spirit and commitment that are characteristic of a true Tennessean; and

WHEREAS, it is most fitting that the members of this legislative body should pause to honor the exceptional service of Sheila Whalum; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor and commend Sheila Whalum for her honorable and astute service to the good people of Tennessee and extend to her our best wishes for continued success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
