

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1169

By Capley

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of Fred Hime Gillham of Clifton.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly were greatly saddened to learn of the passing of Fred Hime Gillham of Clifton; and

WHEREAS, Fred Gillham was an exemplary public servant and consummate professional who worked assiduously to improve the quality of life for his fellow citizens in numerous capacities; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Gillham was born on September 14, 1942, on Church Street in Clifton to Delia Belle Gillham and Fred Elliot Gillham; he had one sister, Archie Dee Gillham, who passed away at age eighteen; and

WHEREAS, during Fred Gillham's childhood, his father was a Seabee in the U.S. Navy during World War II; thus, he was especially influenced by his mother and sister; and

WHEREAS, before moving to East Tennessee for work after high school, Mr. Gillham promised his family in Clifton that after he made $100,000, he would move back to Clifton and take care of the Gillham Family Farm; and

WHEREAS, in East Tennessee, he worked for the Preston Carroll Construction Company digging trenches and repairing equipment; and

WHEREAS, in 1961, Fred Gillham married Mary Faye Brewer; they had three children, Jennifer G. Morrison, Fred H. Gillham, Jr., and Holly G. Brown; and

WHEREAS, an industrious man of many trades, Mr. Gillham spent most of his working years in Columbia buying and selling commercial real estate, trading equipment, restoring race cars, and engaging in any other business venture he thought lucrative; and

WHEREAS, just as he promised, Fred Gillham was able to take care of his family farm and also obtain his Uncle Fin's property in Hardin County, which he maintained until his death; and

WHEREAS, in 1988, Mr. Gillham married Kelli C. Gillham; they renovated Elm Springs in Columbia, which is now home to the National Confederate Museum, and Hamilton Place, which they still owned until his death; and

WHEREAS, one of Fred Gillham's greatest passions was spending time at the Tennessee River in Clifton at his cabin nestled between the banks of the Tennessee River and Highway 128; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Gillham leaves behind an indelible legacy of integrity and probity in public life, compassion and loyalty in private life, and diligence and dedication in all his chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should remember the bountiful life of this exceptional public servant and human being; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor the memory of Fred Hime Gillham, reflecting fondly upon his impeccable character and his stalwart commitment to living the examined life with courage and conviction.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we extend our sympathy and offer our condolences to the family of Mr. Gillham.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.

