

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1146

By Watson

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of Chad Allen Young of Ooltewah.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly were greatly saddened to learn of the untimely passing of Chad Allen Young of Ooltewah; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Young was an exemplary public servant and consummate professional who worked assiduously to improve the quality of life for his fellow citizens in numerous capacities; and

WHEREAS, known affectionately by many as "Trooper" or "Cheeseburger," Chad Young was born on January 30, 1972, in Chattanooga; he attended Standifer Gap SDA School and graduated from Ooltewah High School in 1990; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Young devoted twenty-three years of his life to serving his community as a deputy in the Civil Warrants Unit with the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office, a role that was not simply a career but a calling that he deeply loved and a part of who he was; and

WHEREAS, he took great pride in wearing the badge, upholding the law, and serving others with unwavering dedication; and

WHEREAS, prior to his career in law enforcement, he worked as a corrections officer at Walker State Prison and at Hays State Prison in Georgia; and

WHEREAS, throughout his years of service, Chad Young was known for his strong sense of responsibility, his respect for others, and his steadfast desire to make a meaningful difference in the lives of those he served; and

WHEREAS, a man of deep faith, Chad Young was a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Young's favorite pastimes were playing online video games and collecting firearms, and he also had a passion for muscle cars and hot rods; and

WHEREAS, deeply devoted to his family, Chad Young always endeavored to remain true to family values of the highest order; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Young is survived by his loving wife, Janet Young; mother, Jan (Don) Grant; fur baby, Gigi; and half-brother and sister, Kanaan and Karryelle; and

WHEREAS, he was preceded in death by his father, Jerry Allen Young, and his grandparents, Jim and Irene Lovell and Jesse and Mildred Young; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Young will be remembered for his warmth, his humor, and the deep love he shared with family and friends; and

WHEREAS, Chad Young leaves behind an indelible legacy of integrity and probity in public life, compassion and loyalty in private life, and diligence and dedication in all his chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should remember the bountiful life of this exceptional public servant and human being; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor the memory of Chad Allen Young, reflecting fondly upon his impeccable character and his stalwart commitment to living the examined life with courage and conviction.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we extend our sympathy and offer our condolences to the family of Mr. Young.
