

HOUSE BILL 1479

By Bulso

AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 15, Chapter 2, relative to days of special observance.

WHEREAS, James K. Polk was born in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina on November 2, 1795, the eldest of ten children; and

WHEREAS, when he was eleven years of age, James K. Polk and his family moved to Tennessee, settled in what would become Maury County, and founded James K. Polk's lifetime hometown, Columbia, Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, James K. Polk overcame a significant illness as a child, later attended and was graduated from the University of North Carolina with first honors in both mathematics and classics, and later studied law under the guidance of Felix Grundy; and

WHEREAS, James K. Polk joined the bar of Tennessee and embarked upon a successful law practice, led a productive life as a lawyer in Columbia, Tennessee, was elected to serve in the Tennessee General Assembly in 1823, and became a close friend and political protégé of General Andrew Jackson; and

WHEREAS, James K. Polk was elected to the United States House of Representatives from Tennessee in August 1825, and rose to be Speaker of the United States House of Representatives in December of 1835; and

WHEREAS, James K. Polk was elected as the 11th Governor of the State of Tennessee August 1, 1839, and in November of 1844 he was elected as the 11th President of the United States; and

WHEREAS, James K. Polk served as President of the United States from March 4, 1845, until March 6, 1849, and during his time as President, expanded the territory of the United States westward to include Texas, California, New Mexico, and the Oregon Territory, thus fulfilling the "Manifest Destiny" of the United States to be a beacon of liberty and freedom from the Atlantic Ocean to the Pacific Ocean; and

WHEREAS, because of the noble and indispensable service of James K. Polk to Tennessee and the United States, it is appropriate that Tennessee observe November 2nd of each year as "James K. Polk Day"; now, therefore,

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 15, Chapter 2, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

November 2 of each year is to be observed as "James K. Polk Day," to honor the service of President James K. Polk to the State of Tennessee and the United States of America.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
