

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 960

By Boyd

A RESOLUTION to commemorate the twenty-fifth anniversary of September 11, 2001.

WHEREAS, the lives of Americans were changed forever on September 11, 2001, when tragic events threatened our way of life; and

WHEREAS, twenty-five years later, the people of the United States and people around the world continue to mourn the tremendous loss of innocent life on that fateful day; and

WHEREAS, thousands of men and women in the United States Armed Forces remain in harm's way defending our nation against those who seek to threaten the United States; and

WHEREAS, on the twenty-fifth anniversary of that tragic day, the thoughts of the people of the United States are with all of the victims of the events of September 11, 2001; and

WHEREAS, beginning in 2002, family members who lost loved ones in the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks began to seek a forward-looking tribute to honor the sacrifice of those who were lost and to pay tribute to those who rose in service in response to the tragedy; and

WHEREAS, by encouraging Americans to volunteer and participate in service and remembrance activities on the 9/11 anniversary, family members provided a productive and respectful way to honor those who perished and rekindled the spirit of unity that swept our nation after 9/11 to help meet the challenges we face today; and

WHEREAS, because of their efforts to build support for this idea, September 11th has been designated as a National Day of Service and Remembrance, and proud Americans will come together annually in communities across this country to both remember the fallen and to volunteer for the greater good; and

WHEREAS, September 11, 2026, marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of that horrific day, and it is most appropriate for the members of this General Assembly and the great State of

Tennessee, known far and wide as the Volunteer State, to observe this special day in volunteer service to our communities as a respectful tribute; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor the memory of those lost in the 9/11 tragedy and in service to this great nation.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
