

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1251

By Campbell

A RESOLUTION to honor Margot Café & Bar for twenty-five years of operation.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should pay tribute to those exceptional establishments that not only offer unforgettable culinary experiences but also cultivate community and enrich the lives of all who pass their thresholds; and

WHEREAS, one of East Nashville's most beloved restaurants, Margot Café & Bar, has announced that it will close its doors on June 5, 2026, twenty-five years from the day of its opening; and

WHEREAS, located at 1017 Woodland Street, Margot is a cozy, French-inspired restaurant with southern influences featuring a menu that changes daily and focuses on locally sourced products, seasonal ingredients, freshness, and simplicity; and

WHEREAS, Margot Café & Bar was founded by chef, owner, and namesake Margot McCormack, who opened her restaurant in a former 1930s-era gas station in the historic Five Points area in 2001, at a time when East Nashville was primarily a quiet, residential neighborhood; and

WHEREAS, Ms. McCormack is a four-time James Beard Foundation Best Chef Southeast nominee, a Nashville native, and a graduate of the University of Tennessee; she began her career working at Nashville restaurants such as Faison's and F. Scott's Restaurant and Jazz Bar before attending the Culinary Institute of America in New York, New York. After several years of cooking in the city, she returned home in 1995; and

WHEREAS, many successful chefs spent time at Margot early in their careers, including now-executive chef Hadley Long and City House's Tandy Wilson; and

WHEREAS, Margot Café & Bar has been a culinary staple of East Nashville, a pioneering venture in the neighborhood that helped inspire Nashville's evolution as a premier "foodie" destination; and

WHEREAS, the outstanding success and stellar reputation that Margot has attained would not have been possible without the hard work and dedication of Margot McCormack; her wife, Heather Parsons; their son, Jacob; and countless employees, both past and present; and

WHEREAS, it is our privilege to pay homage to this singular culinary establishment on this bittersweet occasion; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor and commend Margot McCormack and the chefs and employees, past and present, of Margot Café & Bar on twenty-five years of operation, extending our best wishes for every future success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
