

SENATE RESOLUTION 422

By Massey

A RESOLUTION to honor Do Something Tennessee Day, May 1, 2026.

WHEREAS, Do Something Tennessee (DSTN) Day is a statewide day of action designed to mobilize youth, families, schools, and community organizations to participate in meaningful volunteer service; and

WHEREAS, rooted in the social impact initiative "It Takes a Child to Raise a Village," DSTN reframes volunteerism as both a youth-led and community-wide responsibility; and

WHEREAS, by aligning Tennessee's inaugural Do Something Day with national service movements, DSTN will position the State as a leader in youth civic engagement and service-culture engagement; and

WHEREAS, DSTN is being spearheaded by Miss Knoxville Meghan Gadsden; through her initiative, she will activate service opportunities across the State, including the major Tennessee cities of Memphis, Nashville, Knoxville, and Chattanooga, and will engage schools and youth-serving organizations in coordinated service efforts; and

WHEREAS, DSTN is part of a broader vision to strengthen youth volunteerism infrastructure across the State and nation, including a visit to Washington, D.C., to begin policy advocacy conversations regarding incentivizing volunteerism in K-12 education; and

WHEREAS, it is most appropriate that we applaud those citizens and entities across the State who are focused on increasing youth engagement in volunteerism and community service; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor Do Something

Tennessee Day on May 1, 2026, and commend those youth, families, schools, and community organizations who participate in meaningful volunteer service.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
