

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1074

By Littleton

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate the citizens of Cheatham County upon the 170th anniversary of the county's founding.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we should join with the counties that comprise this great State in celebrating joyous and notable occasions in their histories; and

WHEREAS, one such entity is Cheatham County, which this year celebrates the 170th anniversary of its founding; and

WHEREAS, Cheatham County was officially established by the Tennessee General Assembly on February 28, 1856, and was formed from portions of Davidson, Dickson, Montgomery, and Robertson counties; and

WHEREAS, the county was named in honor of Edward Saunders Cheatham, a distinguished Tennessee statesman who served in the Tennessee House of Representatives and the Tennessee Senate and was highly regarded for his service to the citizens of this State; and

WHEREAS, the county seat, Ashland City, was established along the banks of the Cumberland River and became a center of commerce, transportation, and community life; and

WHEREAS, the Cumberland River played a vital role in the county's early economic development, supporting trade, agriculture, timber, and transportation throughout the nineteenth century; and

WHEREAS, throughout its history, Cheatham County has maintained strong agricultural traditions, expanding into industry, small business development, and residential growth while preserving its rural character and natural beauty; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Cheatham County have demonstrated resilience and civic pride throughout the county's history, contributing to the cultural, educational, and economic advancement of Middle Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, generations of families have built churches, schools, farms, and businesses that have shaped the identity and heritage of the county; and

WHEREAS, for 170 years, the citizens of Cheatham County have added and continue to add immeasurably to the strength and character of the State of Tennessee; their history and accomplishments have helped to build the cultural richness for which this State is known; and

WHEREAS, it is most appropriate that we should honor this fine community and its citizenry as they commemorate this significant milestone in their historic existence; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor and congratulate the citizens of Cheatham County upon the 170th anniversary of the county's founding and extend to them our best wishes for continued success, growth, and prosperity in their vibrant, historic community.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
