

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 193

By Johnson

A RESOLUTION to honor Rock The Street, Wall Street and its founder, Maura K. Cunningham.

WHEREAS, in 2012, Maura K. Cunningham founded Rock The Street, Wall Street in Nashville as a nonprofit organization; and

WHEREAS, since its inception, Rock The Street, Wall Street has been dedicated to enhancing financial and investment foundations among young women; and

WHEREAS, Rock The Street, Wall Street started its first financial and investment literacy program at a Nashville high school and has since expanded its operations to provide programs at sixty-four high schools across the U.S. and in London and Toronto; and

WHEREAS, to date, Rock The Street, Wall Street has empowered more than 600 young women in Tennessee by providing them with comprehensive financial education and investment training; and

WHEREAS, employing nearly twenty people in Tennessee, Rock The Street, Wall Street supports statewide economic growth by preparing a well-informed future workforce that is capable of making sound financial and investment decisions; and

WHEREAS, on Rock The Street, Wall Street Day, we recognize Maura K. Cunningham as the organization's 2025 Woman of the Year; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor and commend Rock The Street, Wall Street and its founder, Maura K. Cunningham, on the organization's success in enhancing financial literacy and fostering economic independence among the young women of this State.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
