

SENATE RESOLUTION 367

By Rose

A RESOLUTION to commend Joel Cline for exemplary service as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, each legislative session, this body is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Joel Cline is one such individual, who has distinguished himself in his role as a legislative intern for Senator Paul Rose; Mr. Cline's work has resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislators he assisted and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, born in Cortez, Colorado, Mr. Cline is the son of Casey Cline and was raised with the support of his grandparents, Debbie and Donald Cline; his family moved to Tennessee in 2004, establishing roots in Greene County; and

WHEREAS, a student at King University, where he is highly regarded by his peers, Joel Cline has achieved academic success while pursuing a Bachelor of Arts degree in History and is slated to graduate summa cum laude in May 2026; he has served the history, political science, and faith and culture departments with acumen and alacrity as a teaching assistant; and

WHEREAS, during his time at King University, Mr. Cline became the first student to attend the Tennessee Legislative Internship Program twice and the second to win a game of Diplomacy in Dr. Martin Dotterweich's European Age of Revolutions class; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Cline previously earned an Associate of Science degree in History from Walters State Community College, graduating magna cum laude; and

WHEREAS, a gentleman of many talents and interests, Joel Cline has a passion for storytelling in all forms. He took an interest in learning about history at a young age, and since then, he has developed a fascination for Appalachian culture and history and exploring alternate-history scenarios; his passion for history has led him to assist with events dedicated to Appalachian heritage, and he intends to continue learning, even after he completes his education; and

WHEREAS, he further enjoys exploring the differences between denominations and deepening his faith in God through his studies; and

WHEREAS, a resident of Afton, Mr. Cline has brought his creativity, interest in history, and passion for public service to his time with the legislature once more, having previously served the Tennessee General Assembly as a legislative intern for Chairman Dennis Powers in 2025, in which role he gained experience with constituent relations and conducted bill tracking, recordkeeping, and office duties; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize himself with the characteristics and complexities of Tennessee State government and to further his studies, Joel Cline brought his many abilities and singular expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2026 session of the One Hundred Fourteenth General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2026 legislative session, Mr. Cline has surpassed all criteria that define a devoted and conscientious legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, Joel Cline has performed his many duties with extraordinary insight and rare decorum; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we hereby commend Joel Cline for outstanding service as a legislative intern for Senator Paul Rose and extend to him our best wishes for every future success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
