

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 118

By Hale

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Evan Boyd for his act of heroism.

WHEREAS, we are honored to recognize those selfless individuals whose quick thinking and decisive actions have saved the lives of those in peril; and

WHEREAS, Evan Boyd, a fourteen-year-old student from Gordonsville High School, recently become a hero of the highest order when he bravely stepped in to prevent a dangerous situation from becoming deadly; and

WHEREAS, on January 30, 2025, Evan noticed something unusual during class; he looked over and saw another student playing with his waistband, and when he asked the student what he was doing, he flashed what appeared to be a handgun; and

WHEREAS, alarmed, Evan Boyd walked behind the student and grabbed him, saying, "Hey, he has a gun"; as chaos quickly ensued with students running for safety, Evan showed remarkable composure, wrestling the weapon away from his classmate's waistband and tossing it aside before tackling him to the ground; and

WHEREAS, Evan restrained the student until a teacher arrived to assist; ultimately, school staff and local law enforcement handled the situation, finding that the student had brought a BB gun that closely resembled a handgun onto campus; and

WHEREAS, Evan Boyd's modesty regarding his heroic act stands in great contrast to the immense impact of his actions, which likely prevented a potential tragedy from unfolding in his classroom; and

WHEREAS, Evan's quick thinking under pressure and compassionate action are a testament to his character and bravery; and

WHEREAS, Evan Boyd's actions were sure and decisive in the midst of a serious situation, and he is most deserving of recognition for his heroism; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor and commend Evan Boyd for his outstanding demonstration of courage, resourcefulness, and presence of mind as we join with the citizens of Tennessee in expressing our admiration and appreciation for his heroic actions.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
