By Reneau

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Officer Dresdyn Johnson upon her receipt of the Victim Support–Neighborhood Policing Award.

WHEREAS, our nation was conceived by individuals who were willing to sacrifice their personal concerns to ensure the public safety and welfare, and the Volunteer State is especially proud to be the home of so many valiant individuals who have performed above and beyond the call of duty in service of public safety; and

WHEREAS, one such individual is Officer Dresdyn Johnson, who was recently honored with the Chattanooga Police Department (CPD) Victim Support–Neighborhood Policing award, in recognition of her long-standing partnership with CPD through the neighborhood policing bureau; and

WHEREAS, Officer Johnson has exhibited the utmost dedication to supporting victims of crimes, taking time to understand their situation while also empathizing and learning how to best prioritize services and resources for victims and their families; and

WHEREAS, in 2025, Dresdyn Johnson truly excelled, demonstrating quick and effective thinking by connecting an individual in crisis with specific resources and by connecting with trauma-impacted youth at Camp Hope; and

WHEREAS, in August of that same year, she went above and beyond the call of duty during severe flooding, placing herself in high-water situations to ensure public safety; on Christmas Eve, Officer Johnson paid an unexpected tow bill for a visiting victim whose stolen vehicle was recovered, ensuring the family enjoyed their holiday; and
