

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 960

By Walley

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Wyatt Poole and Joseph Tosh upon winning first place in the Problem Solving Division at the Tennessee Jobs for America's Graduates State Career Development Conference.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should specially recognize those outstanding young Tennesseans who, through their achievements and dedication, bring honor to their schools, communities, and this State; and

WHEREAS, Wyatt Poole and Joseph Tosh are two such exceptional students, who recently distinguished themselves through their academic skill and leadership by earning first place in the Problem Solving Division competition at the Tennessee Jobs for America's Graduates (JAGTN) State Career Development Conference, held in Murfreesboro on February 25-27, 2026; and

WHEREAS, seniors at Haywood High School, Wyatt Poole and Joseph Tosh previously secured second place at the West Tennessee Regional Competition, thereby advancing to the state-level contest; and

WHEREAS, during the competition, participants were presented with a prompt and given thirty minutes to prepare and deliver a presentation evaluated across multiple criteria, including content, engagement, confidence, body language, transitions, time management, audience awareness, originality, overall impression, and professional attire, and the Haywood High School competitors achieved a minimum nine out of ten points in every category; and

WHEREAS, founded in 1980, Jobs for America's Graduates (JAG) partners with schools, employers, and communities nationwide to help students overcome barriers to success by providing a comprehensive curriculum focused on career readiness, leadership development, and personal growth; and

WHEREAS, the JAG chapter at Haywood High School was reinstated in 2023 under the leadership of Principal Michelle Tillman and JAG Specialist Eliza Ford, whose guidance and commitment have helped foster new opportunities for students at the school; and

WHEREAS, Wyatt Poole (Sarah and Josh Poole) and Joseph Tosh (Denise and Scott Hooser) have brought great pride to their families, their school, and their community through their impressive accomplishment; and

WHEREAS, by virtue of their First Place finish, these remarkable students have earned the opportunity to represent Tennessee at the Jobs for America's Graduates National Career Development Conference in Salt Lake City, Utah, from April 29-May 2, 2026, marking the first time that Haywood High School's JAG team will compete at the national level; and

WHEREAS, the talent, determination, and leadership demonstrated by Wyatt Poole and Joseph Tosh are a source of great pride to their families, their school, and their community; and

WHEREAS, this General Assembly finds it appropriate to pause in its deliberations to congratulate Wyatt Poole and Joseph Tosh on their outstanding accomplishment; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor and commend Wyatt Poole and Joseph Tosh upon winning first place in the Problem Solving Division at the Tennessee Jobs for America's Graduates State Career Development Conference and extend to them our best wishes for much continued success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
