A RESOLUTION to recognize and honor the Franklin County Library on the occasion of its 100th anniversary.

WHEREAS, we take great pride in recognizing those venerable public institutions that are devoted to serving their communities; and

WHEREAS, currently housed at 105 S. Porter Street in Winchester, the library operated out of churches, a private home, basements, and a former automobile garage before its permanent edifice was constructed and opened in 1970; and

WHEREAS, in addition to a robust offering of hardcopy and digital materials, visitors to the Franklin County Library have access to public computers, Wi-Fi, printing, scanning, and 3-D printing; the library also offers meeting spaces, resume and job search assistance, and classes, ranging from Tai chi to coding; and

WHEREAS, area students benefit from the library year round, attending summer reading programs and enjoying tutoring, plays, live concerts, and Family Movie Night throughout the school year; Tennessee Promise students also have the opportunity to volunteer with the library; and

WHEREAS, throughout its history, the Franklin County Library has served populations of varying ages, cultures, and education and economic levels, fulfilling its mission of "service for all"; and
