

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 696

By Vital

A RESOLUTION to honor and recognize the fiftieth anniversary of the Chattanooga Allergy Clinic.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we pay tribute to those exemplary organizations and their remarkable personnel who work with purpose and conviction to improve the quality of life in their respective communities; and

WHEREAS, one such estimable institution is the Chattanooga Allergy Clinic (CAC), which is commemorating its fiftieth anniversary this year, marking five decades of providing the highest-quality allergy and immunodeficiency care; and

WHEREAS, the Chattanooga Allergy Clinic, founded in 1975 by Dr. Hyman Kaplan, was the first full-service allergy and immunology clinic in the city, and since then, CAC has met the needs of a population dealing with the effects of an exceptionally high pollen count; and

WHEREAS, before CAC was established, Chattanooga residents traveled to Nashville or Atlanta, Georgia, to see an allergy specialist; and

WHEREAS, CAC treats allergies, asthma, immunodeficiency, and food allergies, in addition to skin and sinus conditions in pediatric and adult patients; the clinic utilizes compassionate care and seeks to increase the quality of patients' lives, while overall reducing the need for emergency room visits and hospital admissions; and

WHEREAS, since its inception, the Chattanooga Allergy Clinic has grown from five employees and one location to more than 130 employees, six double-board-certified physicians, eleven nurse practitioners, and eight locations in the Greater Chattanooga area and has seen significant advancements in the testing and treatment of allergic disease and immunologic deficiencies; and

WHEREAS, CAC has operated under the motto, "Helping You Live Life to the Fullest," and for fifty years, it has provided the highest quality comprehensive allergy and immunology health care; and

WHEREAS, we are privileged to recognize the Chattanooga Allergy Clinic for its countless contributions to the well-being of the citizens of Tennessee; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor and recognize the Chattanooga Allergy Clinic upon the occasion of its fiftieth anniversary, extending our deepest gratitude for the institution's outstanding service to the citizens of the Greater Chattanooga area.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
