

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1080

By Barrett

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Drew Holcomb for his dedication to and love for the State of Tennessee.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly take great pleasure in recognizing those talented individuals whose achievements bring pride to our State and whose work celebrates the rich cultural heritage of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, one such notable Tennessean is Drew Holcomb, an accomplished singer-songwriter whose music reflects a deep affection for the Volunteer State and whose career has carried the spirit of Tennessee to audiences across the nation and around the world; and

WHEREAS, a native of Memphis, Drew Holcomb grew up in West Tennessee before attending the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, where he further developed his passion for music and storytelling; and

WHEREAS, after marrying fellow singer-songwriter Ellie Holcomb, Mr. Holcomb made his home in Nashville, where the couple reside with their three children, Emmylou, Huck, and Rivers, and together they continue to contribute to the vibrant musical life of the Volunteer State; and

WHEREAS, throughout his career, Drew Holcomb has remained steadfast in his love for Tennessee, often sharing the story of his life in this great State and the enduring pull it holds for him even as his music has taken him to stages across the world; and

WHEREAS, through his songwriting and performances, Mr. Holcomb celebrates the people, places, and traditions that make Tennessee unique, reminding audiences everywhere of the profound sense of home and belonging that the Volunteer State inspires; and

WHEREAS, in particular, his music has captured the deep pride Tennesseans feel for their home, as reflected in the heartfelt refrain of his song, "Tennessee, Tennessee, I was born here and raised here and I'll make my grave here, it's home, Tennessee," words that resonate with listeners far beyond this State's borders; and

WHEREAS, by sharing his love for Tennessee through his music and his public life, Drew Holcomb has served as a worthy ambassador for our State and has helped to highlight the beauty, history, and cultural richness that define the Volunteer State; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor and commend Drew Holcomb for his dedication to and love for the State of Tennessee and extend to him our best wishes for continued success and happiness in all his future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
