

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 509

By Southerland

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate Tracy Solomon of Greeneville upon his receipt of the Veteran Owned Small Business of the Year award.

WHEREAS, small businesses are the backbone of Tennessee's economy, and the goods and services provided by their diligent proprietors contribute significantly to the overall well-being of the citizens of this State; and

WHEREAS, one such estimable small business owner is Tracy Solomon of Greeneville, owner of TEVET, who was awarded the Veteran Owned Small Business of the Year award by the United States Small Business Administration's Tennessee District Office; and

WHEREAS, a proud military veteran, Mr. Solomon followed his family's tradition and joined the United States Navy, where he worked to support F-14 Tomcat squadrons, gaining hands-on experience with complex systems and electronics; and

WHEREAS, after completing his military service, he transitioned to the private sector and ultimately used a second mortgage to launch TEVET, which is the leading federal reseller of engineering equipment and supplies and a premier provider of cutting-edge solutions in technology and defense, specializing in providing Test and Measurement equipment and software for government agencies and their prime contractors; and

WHEREAS, the company's success has allowed Mr. Solomon and his team to give back to their community through support for a variety of organizations, including the Holston Home for Children, Disabled American Veterans, Capitol Theatre of Greeneville, local JROTC programs, and veterans' groups; and

WHEREAS, it is most fitting that we join in acknowledging this exceptional Tennessee businessman; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we congratulate Tracy Solomon upon his receipt of the Veteran Owned Small Business of the Year award from the U.S. Small Business Administration's Tennessee District Office, extending our best wishes for much continued success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
