

SENATE RESOLUTION 58

By Walley

A RESOLUTION to congratulate Byron Conaway upon his induction into the Tennessee Aviation Hall of Fame.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we should salute those citizens who, through their remarkable efforts, have distinguished themselves as community leaders of whom we can all be proud; and

WHEREAS, one such estimable individual is Byron Conaway of Savannah, who has been inducted into the Tennessee Aviation Hall of Fame, a testament to the important role he has played in the history and advancement of aviation in Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, born and raised in Adamsville, Byron Conaway is a lifelong aviation enthusiast and pilot, and he is the proud owner and operator of the Sibley Aviation Museum at the Robert Sibley Airport in Selmer; and WHEREAS, Mr. Conaway uses the museum to reach many youth in the area and introduce them to aviation; in addition to educating them on this important and most interesting topic, he has no doubt influenced the life paths of countless young Tennesseans; and

WHEREAS, he has also served his community as a philanthropist, supporting veterans and underprivileged citizens in West Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, the success of this State, the strength of our communities, and the overall vitality of American society depend, in great measure, upon the dedication of people such as Byron Conaway, who use their considerable talents and resources to serve others and who should be specially recognized for their public and community service; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we recognize and congratulate Byron Conaway upon his induction into the Tennessee Aviation Hall of Fame, extending our best wishes for much continued success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
