AMEND Senate Bill No. 2658*

House Bill No. 2402

by adding the following subsection to § 29-34-216 in Section 4:

(d) Subsection (a) does not provide immunity from civil liability to an employer of an emergency utility worker for negligent acts or omissions of the employer, even if those acts and omissions occur during emergency utilities restoration activities. The immunity from civil liability provided to an employer under this section only applies to the extent that the employee is immune from civil liability.
