

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 79

By Gillespie

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of William Reid Sanders, Sr., of Memphis.

WHEREAS, it was with great sadness that the members of this General Assembly learned of the passing of William Reid Sanders, Sr., a lifelong Memphian; and

WHEREAS, a loyal friend on the personal level, Mr. Sanders was also an active philanthropist and a pillar of his community; and

WHEREAS, he evidenced his zest for life as "camp counselor" for the many excursions he organized for friends and family and through his deep love of animals, particularly his pets, Max and Gus; and

WHEREAS, possessing a deep generosity of spirit and a contagious optimism, Reid Sanders was ever ready to lend a helping hand in matters both big and small, and he always saw the best in others; and

WHEREAS, a gentleman of keen business acumen, Mr. Sanders remained humble despite his many successes in life; and

WHEREAS, because of his reputation as a founder and Executive Vice President of Southeastern Asset Management and President of Lingleaf Partners Funds, he was frequently asked to share his advice and counsel as a board member for public and private companies; and

WHEREAS, after his retirement from Southeastern, Reid Sanders engaged in numerous ventures, including the founding of Sanders Properties; and

WHEREAS, because of his talent, integrity, and generosity, he was highly sought after as a director/trustee and benefactor of numerous nonprofit institutions, including the Jefferson

Scholars Foundation at the University of Virginia, Rhodes College, the Hugo Dixon Foundation, The Dixon Gallery and Gardens, and the Campbell Clinic Foundation; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Sanders was especially proud of the title "Honorary Alumna" conferred upon him for his extraordinary leadership as Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Hutchison School, a Memphis girls' school that is the alma mater of his wife and daughter; and

WHEREAS, he was a member of the Memphis Hunt and Polo Club; The Memphis Country Club, which he served as President; and Yeamans Hall Club; he enjoyed attending Memphis Tigers basketball games and visiting his children in Charleston, South Carolina; and

WHEREAS, Reid Sanders attended Presbyterian Day School, Memphis University School, Central High School, and the University of Virginia, where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Sanders is survived by his best friend and wife of forty years, Christeve Robinson Sanders; daughter, Christeve Aubrey Sanders (Jack Davis); son, William Reid (Lydia) Sanders, Jr.; half-sister, Jean Sanders (Bob) Kirkpatrick; and many nieces, nephews, and godchildren; and

WHEREAS, he was preceded in death by his father, Edward Harvey Sanders, Sr.; mother, Mimi Reid Sanders Smith; stepfather, Dr. Hugh Smith; brother, George Clarke Sanders; half-brother, Edward Harvey Sanders, Jr.; half-sister, Normi Sanders (Tim) Geske; and step-sisters, Mimi Smith (Albert) Mallory and Nancy Smith (David) Johnston; and

WHEREAS, a man who relished the opportunity to bring happiness to others, Mr. Sanders had a profound impact in Memphis, and he will be sorely missed by his family, friends, and the community at large; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE

CONCURRING, that we honor the memory of William Reid Sanders, Sr., of Memphis, reflecting fondly upon his life of purpose and commitment to the greater good.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we extend our condolences to Mr. Sanders's family and many friends.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
