

HOUSE RESOLUTION 148

By Hill

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of Chesna Jeane Hulseley of Church Hill.

WHEREAS, the members of this legislative body were greatly saddened to learn of the passing of Chesna Jeane Hulseley, beloved mother of our valued colleague Representative Bud Hulseley; and

WHEREAS, born on December 21, 1928, Jeane Hulseley grew up in central New Mexico and on the Navajo Reservation, places she often spoke of with pride and with gratitude for the opportunities she was afforded to witness and share the Gospel; and

WHEREAS, from a young age, she dedicated her life to bringing others to Christ, whether it was picking up neighborhood children to take them to church or meeting parents along her school bus route to invite their children to the Good News Clubs she helped start; and

WHEREAS, Jeane Hulseley was relentless in her mission to see souls saved; even in her later years as her health declined she continued to witness to those around her, never ceasing to speak of the hope she found in Jesus; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Hulseley was a faithful student of Scripture, able to recall and recite passages and entire books with ease, and she carried herself as a true prayer warrior; her heart was one of service, and her life was lived as a servant to her King, the Messiah; and

WHEREAS, she met the love of her life and her husband of nearly seventy-five years at an Army Depot between Williams and Flagstaff, Arizona; together, they built a life centered on faith, family, and service; although recently preceded in death by him, she continued to cherish his memory deeply; and

WHEREAS, in addition to Representative Bud Hulsey, left to carry on her legacy of faith are her granddaughter, Chesna Quillen, and her husband, James, as well as her great-grandchildren, Aiden and Alysse; and

WHEREAS, throughout her many endeavors, Jeane Hulsey distinguished herself as a devoted woman of God who was a blessing to all who had the good fortune of knowing her; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we should pay tribute to her bountiful life of purpose and commitment; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor the memory of Chesna Jeane Hulsey, reflecting fondly upon her enduring legacy of faith and compassion.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we extend our sympathy and condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Hulsey.
