AMEND Senate Bill No. 298*

House Bill No. 1197

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 49-6-1026(b), is amended by deleting the word "curriculum" and substituting the word "course".

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 49-6-1026(c), is amended by deleting the subsection and substituting the following:

(A) Except as provided in subdivision (c)(1)(B), any course for an academic study of the Bible using a curriculum and instructional materials developed by an LEA or a public charter school must be approved by the local board of education or the public charter school governing body and comply with subdivisions (a)(1)-(3).

(B) A course for an academic study of the Bible that was approved by the department before July 1, 2025, is not required to be approved pursuant to subdivision (c)(1)(A).

(2) The department of education shall make available on its website:

(A) A list identifying each LEA or public charter school that offers a Bible course approved pursuant to subdivision (c)(1); and

(B) The academic standards for a Bible course that have been approved by the state board of education under subsection (a).

(3) Each LEA and public charter school shall make available on its website all Bible course curricula, including a list of instructional materials, developed by the LEA or public charter school that have been approved by the local board of education or public charter school governing body.

(4) The state board of education shall include in its list of approved high school courses an elective Bible course developed pursuant to this section.

(5) The department shall notify each LEA and public charter school in writing, no later than July 1 of each year, of the LEA's or public charter school's ability to offer an elective state-funded Bible course consisting of a nonsectarian, nonreligious academic study of the Bible in accordance with this section, and the ability of an LEA or public charter school to develop its own Bible course curriculum.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 49-6-1026, is amended by adding the language "or public charter school" immediately following the language "LEA" wherever it appears in subsections (d) and (e).

SECTION 4. This act takes effect July 1, 2025, the public welfare requiring it, and applies to the 2025-2026 school year and subsequent school years.
