

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1003

By Keisling

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate Alyssa Clements upon winning second place in the 2026 American Farm Bureau Federation Convention national agricultural competition.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly are pleased to specially recognize those outstanding citizens of our State who, through their extraordinary efforts, have distinguished themselves as agricultural leaders of whom we can all be proud; and

WHEREAS, one such outstanding individual is Alyssa Clements of Clay County, who won second place in the 2026 American Farm Bureau Federation Convention national agricultural competition held in Anaheim, California; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Clements was recently named the Tennessee Young Farmers and Ranchers Excellence in Agriculture winner in 2025 and went on to represent Tennessee and compete at the national level at the American Farm Bureau Federation Convention; and

WHEREAS, the Excellence in Agriculture Award recognizes young farmers who not only actively contribute to agriculture and participate in Farm Bureau and other organizations but derive the majority of their income from an off-farm occupation; and

WHEREAS, a resident of Clay County, Ms. Clements grew up with grandparents who operated a tobacco and cattle farm and parents in the rural healthcare industry; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Clements earned a Bachelor's degree in Animal Science from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, a Master's degree in Ruminant Nutrition from the University of Illinois, and a Master of Business Administration degree from Tennessee Technological University; and

WHEREAS, Alyssa Clements has been involved with Young Farmers and Ranchers for a number of years and most recently participated in the American Farm Bureau Federation advocacy fly-in in Washington, D.C.; additionally, she has served as a member of the Clay County Young Farmers and Ranchers committee and, for the past two years, as a member of the Clay County Farm Bureau Board of Directors; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Clements began her sales career in animal science in 2015 and currently serves as a sales specialist at Purina Mills, LLC, and Protrition, a partnership with Tennessee Farmers Cooperative; and

WHEREAS, in her current role, Ms. Clements assists producers throughout the middle Tennessee and south-central Kentucky areas in developing nutrition plans involving forages and farm-grown feedstuffs; and

WHEREAS, her professional accomplishments aside, Ms. Clements is most grateful for the love and support of her husband, Adam Boucher, and their son, Amos; and

WHEREAS, Alyssa Clements exemplifies the spirit and dedication that are characteristic of a true Tennessean, and we find it appropriate to honor and commend such an outstanding and remarkable individual; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor and congratulate Alyssa Clements of Clay County upon winning second place in the 2026 American Farm Bureau Federation Convention national agricultural competition, extending to her our best wishes for every continued success and happiness.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
