

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1140

By Reneau

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate the Siskin Children's Institute on the occasion of its seventy-fifth anniversary.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly are pleased to recognize those exemplary organizations that are dedicated to improving the quality of life for the people of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, one such organization is the Siskin Children's Institute, which is celebrating its seventy-fifth anniversary of bringing hope for children and families in the Chattanooga community; and

WHEREAS, the Siskin Children's Institute has been a cornerstone of support, empowering children with disabilities and their families through life-changing services for seventy-five years; and

WHEREAS, in 1950, the Siskin Children's Institute was founded in Chattanooga by brothers Mose and Garrison Siskin, whose shared commitment to serving people with disabilities grew from a personal vow to dedicate their lives to helping others in need; and

WHEREAS, the Mose & Garrison Siskin Memorial Foundation was established in 1950 to support services for children with physical disabilities and developmental delays, including the Siskin Early Learning Center, which provided specialized preschool opportunities for young children and their families; and

WHEREAS, the mission of the Siskin Children's Institute expanded through the establishment of Siskin Hospital for Rehabilitation, offering outpatient services such as physical therapy, speech and language therapy, and other rehabilitative care designed to improve the lives of individuals with disabilities; and

WHEREAS, in 2009, the Siskin Center for Developmental Pediatrics was established to provide comprehensive medical evaluations, diagnoses, therapies, and healthcare resources for children and families navigating complex developmental and healthcare needs; and

WHEREAS, today, the Siskin Children's Institute serves families throughout Tennessee and Georgia through evidence-based developmental pediatric healthcare services, home and community-based early intervention programs, and outreach in the field of developmental medicine; and

WHEREAS, the Institute's Home and Community-Based Early Intervention program supports children with special needs and their caregivers by providing guidance, training, and consultation that help families strengthen their child's development and quality of life; and

WHEREAS, through its Family Support Services and partnerships with organizations such as Family Voices of Tennessee and the Tennessee Disability Coalition, the Institute provides critical healthcare navigation, family support, and professional training for those caring for children with special healthcare needs; and

WHEREAS, continuing its commitment to expanding access to care, the Siskin Children's Institute opened a clinic in Nashville in 2020, broadening the reach of its developmental pediatric services and early intervention programs; and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that we specially recognize the Siskin Children's Institute, commending its seventy-five years of bringing hope and support to children and families in the Chattanooga community; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor and congratulate the Siskin Children's Institute on the occasion of the organization's seventy-fifth anniversary and extend our deepest gratitude for its invaluable contributions to this State.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
