

HOUSE RESOLUTION 241

By Pearson

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Young, Gifted & Green and Founder LaTricea Adams for extraordinary leadership in advancing environmental justice and public health equity.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this legislative body recognize those organizations and leaders who have distinguished themselves through a steadfast commitment to justice, equity, and the well-being of all people; and

WHEREAS, Young, Gifted & Green is a national, award-winning nonprofit environmental justice organization dedicated to advancing policy change through advocacy, mentorship, and leadership development, particularly in historically marginalized communities; and

WHEREAS, founded in response to the water crisis in Flint, Michigan, this movement has grown into a powerful force addressing environmental racism, lead poisoning, and inequitable access to clean air and water across communities in Tennessee and beyond; and

WHEREAS, through programs such as environmental justice training, youth leadership councils, and community-based advocacy initiatives, Young, Gifted & Green empowers the next generation of leaders to engage in civic action and fight for a healthier, more just future; and

WHEREAS, the organization has played a vital role in shaping public policy, including contributing to the passage of the Childhood Lead Prevention Amendment Act and advancing community-centered solutions to environmental health crises; and

WHEREAS, at the helm of this transformative work stands LaTricea Adams, an educator, advocate, and visionary leader whose dedication to environmental justice has mobilized communities, influenced policy at the highest levels, and inspired a national movement; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Adams has demonstrated exceptional leadership through her service as Founder, President, and Chief Executive Officer of Young, Gifted & Green, as well as through her appointment to national advisory roles addressing environmental justice and public health; and

WHEREAS, her work reflects an unwavering commitment to protecting vulnerable communities from environmental harm, ensuring that every family—regardless of zip code—has access to safe water, clean air, and a healthy environment; and

WHEREAS, the impact of Young, Gifted & Green and LaTricea Adams is felt not only in policy victories but in the lives of young people, families, and communities empowered to advocate for themselves and demand justice; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor and commend Young, Gifted & Green and Founder LaTricea Adams for their outstanding contributions to environmental justice, public health, and community empowerment.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
