

SENATE BILL 263

By Hensley

AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 4,
Chapter 1, Part 4, relative to state government.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 4, Chapter 1, Part 4, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

(a) The World Health Organization, the United Nations, and the World Economic Forum have no jurisdiction in this state. This state and its political subdivisions must not be compelled to enforce, or collaborate with the enforcement of, requirements or mandates issued by the World Health Organization, the United Nations, or the World Economic Forum.

(b) Requirements or mandates issued by the World Health Organization, the United Nations, or the World Economic Forum must not be used in this state as a basis for action, or to direct, order, or otherwise impose, contrary to this state's constitution and the laws of this state, any requirements whatsoever, including those for masks, vaccines, or medical testing, or to gather public or private information about this state's citizens or residents, and such requirements or mandates have no force or effect in this state or its political subdivisions.

(c) As used in this section, "political subdivision" means a municipality; public corporation; body politic; authority; district; metropolitan government; county; an agency, department, or board of such entities; or another form of local government.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect July 1, 2025, the public welfare requiring it.
