

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1020

By McNally

A RESOLUTION to commend Cason Orr for exemplary service as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, each legislative session, this General Assembly is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Cason Orr is one such individual, who has distinguished himself in his role as a legislative intern for Lieutenant Governor Randy McNally and Senator Adam Lowe; Mr. Orr's work has resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislators he assisted and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Orr was born and raised in Estill Springs and graduated from Franklin County High School as salutatorian of his class; he endeavored to follow in the steps of his great-grandmother, Judge Dorothy E. Orr, whose actions inspired him to pursue a similar path in politics; and

WHEREAS, a student at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville (UTK), where he is highly regarded by his peers, Cason Orr has achieved academic success while pursuing a Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science with a concentration in Public Policy and Public Administration and minors in History and American Civics; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Orr served as a research intern at the UTK Center for the Study of Tennesseans and War and as a student office assistant at the College of Communication and Information and the Tombras School of Advertising and Public Relations; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his undergraduate studies, Mr. Orr has worked with Remote Area Medical (RAM USA) to set up a pop-up clinic for underserved citizens in Franklin County, further demonstrating his commitment to public service and the well-being of his community;

and

WHEREAS, Mr. Orr is a gentleman of many talents and interests; his creative projects include drawing, writing, documentaries, and photography; he was previously a photographer for the Knox County Republican Party and currently serves as a photographer for the legislative internship program's newsletter; and

WHEREAS, Cason Orr showcased his creative side during the intern talent show, securing second place with his exceptional performance as an Elvis Presley impersonator; and

WHEREAS, he is writing a book that profiles his great-grandmother's life and legacy and partnering with his brother to film and produce a documentary about his mother's side of the family, titled Perry: Family Through the Years; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize himself with the characteristics and complexities of Tennessee State government and to further his studies, Cason Orr brought his many abilities and singular expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2026 session of the One Hundred Fourteenth General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2026 legislative session, Mr. Orr has surpassed all criteria that define a devoted and conscientious legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, Cason Orr has performed his many duties with extraordinary insight and rare decorum; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we hereby commend Cason Orr for outstanding service as a legislative intern for Lieutenant Governor Randy McNally and Senator Adam Lowe and extend to him our best wishes for every future success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
