

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1138

By Southerland

A RESOLUTION to honor the Greeneville-Greene County Public Library on fifty years at its current location.

WHEREAS, Tennessee's public libraries have long been committed to providing citizens with the necessary resources for growth and prosperity in modern society; and

WHEREAS, no public library is more committed to this mission than the Greeneville-Greene County Public Library, which marked fifty years at its current location at 210 N. Main Street in November 2025; and

WHEREAS, the Greeneville-Greene County library was established in 1908 and was housed at the Carnegie Library on Summer Street from 1915 to 1975; and

WHEREAS, as the library outgrew this space and the building needed significant repairs, the site for a new library was identified, with the cost of the project coming in at $360,000; and

WHEREAS, in "the biggest fundraising drive in the county's history" at the time, Greene County residents raised nearly half of the necessary funds, or $140,000, during an eighteen-month period; and

WHEREAS, in October and November of 1975, teams of volunteers and a local Girl Scout troop carried the entire collection of books by hand from the old library to the new facility on Main Street; and

WHEREAS, the library opened November 9, 1975, in a 10,000-square-foot building that was quadruple the size of the old Carnegie library; and

WHEREAS, this safe and welcoming public space continues to be a vital resource for the community by providing internet access, public computers, and office services in addition to traditional printed materials; and

WHEREAS, the Greeneville-Greene County library is an important place for learning and discovery among those who are curious about the world in which they live and its many different philosophies, cultures, and adventures; and

WHEREAS, the staff and patrons of the Greeneville-Greene County library are worthy of our approbation on this special occasion; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor the Greeneville-Greene County Public Library on the occasion of celebrating fifty years at its current location, as we commend its ongoing commitment to growth and discovery through print and digital materials.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
