

SENATE RESOLUTION 67

By Massey

A RESOLUTION to commemorate the 250th anniversary of the U.S. Army.

WHEREAS, the contributions and sacrifices of the men and women who have served in the United States Army since its inception in 1775 have been vital in maintaining our freedoms and way of life; and

WHEREAS, the U.S. Army will celebrate its 250th birthday on June 14, 2025, commemorating its establishment on that date in 1775, more than one year before the signing of the Declaration of Independence; and

WHEREAS, the Army was formed when the Second Continental Congress passed a resolution that created a national Army of "six companies of expert riflemen" to join forces near Boston; and

WHEREAS, the U.S. Army had a significant role in the growth and development of the United States, winning the new republic's independence in an arduous eight-year struggle against Great Britain; the Army remains committed to the security of our nation still today; and

WHEREAS, in honor of 250 years of devotion and history, there will be a wide-reaching, inclusive celebration, with the anniversary theme "This We'll Defend," highlighting the Army's ongoing commitment to protecting the nation; and

WHEREAS, the Army Historical Foundation is involved in the celebration, and the Army Center of Military History is launching an eighteen-month awareness campaign about the milestones of the U.S. Army in American history; and

WHEREAS, to further mark the 250th anniversary of the Army, the National Museum of the U.S. Army will open a new exhibit focusing on the Revolutionary War in June 2025; there will be an effort to engage American civil society, educators, and others in this storytelling project; and

WHEREAS, it is most fitting that we pause to reflect on the important contributions and sacrifices of those who have served in the United States Army since its founding; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we commemorate the United States Army's 250th anniversary and acknowledge and honor the contributions of all veterans to the principles of democracy, individual freedom, and human rights.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
