

SENATE RESOLUTION 241

By Oliver

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of John Louis Hayes, Jr., of Madison.

WHEREAS, the members of this legislative body were greatly saddened to learn of the passing of John Louis Hayes, Jr.; and

WHEREAS, Louis Hayes was a highly respected member of his community and a consummate professional who worked assiduously to improve the quality of life for his fellow citizens in numerous capacities; and

WHEREAS, the eldest of eleven children, Mr. Hayes was born in Nashville on November 16, 1933, to John L. Hayes, Sr., and Louise Hayes Burnette; and

WHEREAS, he attended North High School until he enlisted in the United States Navy, serving three years of active duty aboard the USS Cape Esperance during the Korean War era and continuing his commitment in the naval reserve for more than twenty additional years; and

WHEREAS, following his military service, Louis Hayes served with acumen and alacrity with Atlantic Envelope in Nashville and later distinguished himself in the field of restaurant management; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Hayes also dedicated his time and talents to his faith community, serving with diligence as the bookkeeper for St. Joseph Catholic Church until his retirement; and

WHEREAS, deeply devoted to his family, he was actively involved in coaching his sons' baseball teams in the 1970s, and he especially enjoyed spending time outdoors fishing with his six boys; and

WHEREAS, Louis Hayes was also an avid Atlanta Braves fan and a lover of photography and reading, interests he pursued with enthusiasm throughout his life; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Hayes is survived by his sisters, Dorothy McNeil and Shirley Gzikowski; five sons and their spouses, Rod (Sharon) Hayes, Randy (Judy) Hayes, Rusty (Toni) Hayes, Robbie (Gayle) Hayes, and Phillip Roland (Beth) Hayes; ten grandchildren; and sixteen great-grandchildren, all of whom will lovingly remember his guidance and affection; and

WHEREAS, he was preceded in death by his parents, John L. Hayes, Sr., and Louise Hayes Burnette; eight of his siblings; his cherished wife of fifty-seven years, Florence "Snookey" Hayes; and his third oldest son, Rick Hayes; and

WHEREAS, Louis Hayes leaves behind an indelible legacy of integrity and probity in public life, compassion and loyalty in private life, and diligence and dedication in all his chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this legislative body should pause to remember the bountiful life of this exceptional public servant and human being; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor the memory of John Louis Hayes, Jr., reflecting fondly upon his impeccable character and his stalwart commitment to living the examined life with courage and conviction.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
